

Eastern University, Sri Lanka
Faculty of Commerce and Management
Third Year Second Semester Examination in BBA/BCom/ BBA Hons in MKT
MGT/BCom Hons in ACC & FIN-2021/2022 (Proper)
(August/September 2024)
COC 3073 Community Medicine

Answer all Questions

Time: 03 Hours

1. Sexually Transmitted Infections (STI) are the diseases that are spreading from person to person through intimate sexual contact

1.1. List four (04) important features (Signs and symptoms) of Sexually Transmitted Infections (20 Marks)

1.2. Briefly explain the importance of studying Sexually Transmitted Infections (40 marks)

1.3 Describe the possible preventive measures of Sexually Transmitted Infections among sexually active young adults (40 marks)

2. Public health takes a proactive and preventive approach to focus on the health of entire populations

2.1. Explain the term "Public Health" (20 marks)

2.2. Name the issues which are considered in maintaining good public health in a country (40 marks)

2.3. Briefly describe the essential services of public health (40 marks)

3. Non-communicable diseases (NCDs) have become an important health burden in the world.

3.1. List five (05) important features of NCDs. (20 marks)

3.2. Briefly describe the economic burden caused by NCDs in Sri Lanka (40 Marks)

3.3. Explain on possible healthy life style modifications in NCD prevention (40 Marks)

4. Elderly population is on increasing trend in Sri Lanka and causing multiple challenges in providing care .

4.1. List five (05) age related social problems among elders. (30 marks)

4.2. Explain the possible ways to develop a better elderly care system in your community. (70 marks)

5. Write short notes on the following

5.1. Social determinants of Health (25 Marks)

5.2 Primary prevention of a disease (25 Marks)

5.3 Dengue control activities (25 Marks)

5.4 Importance of exclusive breast feeding (25 Marks)